PASTOR OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH RESIGNS

At the regular monthly business meeting of the First Baptist Church Thursday night the congregation was somewhat surprised to receive the resignation of the pastor, Rev. N. F.
Jones, who will take a position as Key Budget Man for District No. 3 of the State Board of Missions of the General Association of Baptists in Kentucky. Rev. Jones will have charge of the work in twenty-two counties, sixteen associations and 396 churches, with a membership of 63,593. The resignation of Rev. Jones will take effect September 15. It will be good news to the many friends of Rev.
Jones and his family that they will continue to reside in this city as he will make his headquarters here.

Yesterday was the last day of the Ripley, Ohio, Fair and many from this city were in attendance. The fair this year was one of the best ever held.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark and son of Cincinnati arrived yesterday afternoon for a visit to relatives in this city and Aberdeen.

Squire Fred W. Bauer, who was taken ill at his office Thursday, was able to be out and attending his duties yesterday.

Lap Anderson was fined $5.15 in Squire Fred W. Bauer's Court yesterday on a charge of being drunk.

their doors tonight, having been voted

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU

And Information Bureau Now in Operation at Maysville Chamber of Commerce—New Departments Will Benefit All, Whether Members or Not.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce this week the Secretary was instructed to establish an Employment Bureau. This Bureau is in operation now and it is the desire of this organization that all citizens avail themselves of this civic factor. It will be operated along the lines of successful bureaus in operation throughout the United States and solicits your suggestions along the line of constructive criticism.

The use our citizens make of it will determine its length of usefulness of service. It is not only for the manufacturers, but it is the sincere desire of the organization that the merchants, farmers and housewives call in and make known their needs, whether they be members or not.

Mr. Charles R. Duffin, the Superintendent of the Terre Haute Branch of the Indiana Free Employment Bureau in his report says: "I feel those figures but feebly express the great convenience the office has been to the employers of labor in this territory, providing, as it has, a medium through which they obtain the class and character of help desired without expense, and without the least possible delay, and it has been no less a convenience; in fact we feel that it has been a blessing to the unemployed, for it has brought to them the employment sought and gave them an opportunity to select work for which they were best suited, and there are multiplied hundreds who have reasons to be thankful, and they are thankful to those through whose efforts these offices employment is found for the unemployed; thus refounding to a minimum the idle labor of the wage workers of every city in which they are located these benefits measured by the dollar value would be very difficult to estimate, but far more difficult would it be to estimate in money value other elements for good that are traceable to these offices. Such as added home comforts that are made possible by the steady employment of the head of the family that must depend upon the earnings of the bread winner for the clothes that cover and make comfortable, as well as the food that sustains the body, bringing about more suitable conditions, contented minds and a better feeling of man for man."

A perfect Bureau is not promised at present but the service the community will receive will only be limited by the kind cooperation and consideration it receives.

Bureau of Information So often you would like to know something about your city, or other cities or of National or state events, but you are at sea as to where to obtain this information. And with these numerous other facts in mind that they realize you might want to know at some time or other the Directors have instructed the Chamber of Commerce to open a Bureau of Information in conjunction with the Bureau of Employment.

Be sure that you understand our intention in that we do not represent nor claim, to know near all that is to be known. But if research on our part and patience on yours can obtain for you some desired information we want you to consider us at your service.

The funeral of Mrs. Henrietta Martin, who died yesterday morning, will be held from her late home on Central street tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

"HOME READING COURSE FOR CITIZEN SOLDIERS"

Series of Thirty Articles Issued By the War Department to Start in Monday's Ledger.

The War Department is issuing this series of 30 lessons (or informal talks) under the general title "Home-Reading Course for Citizen-Soldiers" for the benefit of the 500,000 young men selected for service in the National Army.

It is expected, however, that the Course will prove almost equally interesting to the other hundreds of thousands who will probably be called to the colors later and to relatives and friends of men now enrolled or likely to be enrolled in the army.
There appears to be a general demand for information of the kind given in the Course.

It is written in simple non-technical language and does not presuppose any military knowledge. At the same time it will probably be of considerable value even to those who have already had military experience.

This series of articles will be run daily in the Public Ledger beginning next Monday and should be clipped out and saved for future reference.
Following is the list of titles of the lessons as they will be published:

1. Your Post of Honor.
2. Making Good as a Soldier.
3. Nine Soldierly Qualities.

GREAT VICTORY FOR BRITISH

Attack at Daybreak and Capture All German Forward Lines—Gain All Objectives.

British Front in France and Belgium, August 10—Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's forces at daybreak this morning attacked and captured virtually all the German forward positions east of the Belgian town of Hooge, on the battlefield between Frezenburg and the Ypres-Menin road. The assaulting forces gained virtually all their objectives to the depth of several hundred yards in the first rush. The German defenses stiffened after the initial onslaught and heavy fighting developed at some places, but at the latest reports the British were holding their new line strongly.

This section of the front was the scene of some of the hardest fighting on the first day of the battle of Flanders. South of Westhoek the terrain is marshy in places and in the wooded section the Germans had strengthened their position by constructing deep dugouts. These obstacles, however, did not deter the onward rush of the British troops this morning. Details of the fighting are not yet available, but it is known that the British troops forged forward in the wake of a protecting barrage from their artillery and achieved most of the objectives in a remarkably short space of time.

All members of the Epworth Adult Bible Class of the Third Street M. E.
Sunday School are requested to be present Sunday at 9:30 a. m. This is important.

MOWER PARK CAMPMETING

Mower Park, August 9—The attendance at the campmeeting at this place is increasing. The people of the community know a good thing when they see and hear it. After the shower of rain yesterday evening the grounds are so beautiful. One can get so close to nature here that he is in a good atmosphere for religious worship. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Feltz have organized a Junior Choir, which is quite a help to the song service.
The sermons delivered by Brother Hall are difficult to surpass by any one. He is at his best and it is quite a treat to hear him, and the community will be much bettered by having this campmeeting. Miss Leedy of Grayson, Ky., will be with us soon.
She comes highly recommended as a singer, which will add much interest to the meetings. The managers of the park are making preparations for a large attendance next Sunday. All who attend will be cordially welcomed.

THE WOMAN SOLDIER

From Joan of Arc to Moll Pitcher the world has not lacked its occasional spectacle of an individual woman soldier who went to meet the enemy with all the resolution and bravery of men, but, with the exception of the legendary Amazons, the Russian Legion of Death presents the first example of organized troops of women going forth to shoot and be shot at on the "rough edge of battle." The Legion of Death proves, what has hitherto been doubted, that women can and will take part in actual war. But these resolute Russian women have solved only one part of a problem hitherto supposed to be altogether insurmountable. The nature of the remaining difficulty is revealed in the statement that they carry a dose of cyanide of potassium as well as arms and have vowed not to be taken alive.

The probable fate of women soldiers after being taken prisoners, their certain fate when they become the captives of such an enemy as the Germans, does not need to be named. The most sluggish imagination visualizes it at once. The woman soldier of the right sort finds it necessary practically to dedicate herself to death from the outset. She may escape capture and survive a war, but the need of suicide in case she becomes a prisoner clouds her prospects and deprives her of a man's chance of survival, greater resolution and bravery being therefore demanded of her than of a man. For this reason, alone—and there are others altogether convincing—the woman soldier is undesirable. Soldiering by women is too costly and no nation can afford it on a large scale. Nor has any nation a real need of it, for there are men enough to do the fighting. The Legion of Death will serve a useful purpose in firing the Russian heart, but the world should not and will not permit it to establish a real precedent.

"PEACE" TALK A TRAP

At the outset of the fourth year of the war the Germans are again talking "peace." In every previous instance it has been made quite clear that their object was to throw dust into the eyes of their enemies and cause a relaxation, thus a weakening of the resistance of offensive. For after talking "peace" they presently permitted it to be understood that they were ready only for such peace as a conqueror would grant. Some of them now pretend that they would be contented with less than this, but such protestations from the Germans would be untrustworthy even if the Kaiser's reorganized government had not recently declared for both annexations and indemnities. There is still much fight in the Germans, they are by no means ready to knock under, and no acceptable peace is now possible.

The present pretense of fair speech, the alleged willingness to discuss more reasonable terms, is obviously intended solely to give American pacifists and the pro-Germans in our midst ground for argument which, it is hoped, will check our enormous preparations for war or at least procure more delay. The Germans have little to fear from chaotic Russia at present and they still hope to bring England and France to terms. To do this before the United States is ready for real fighting is their hope and aim, and to stay this country's preparations is an imperative need. Until Germany sues for peace as a defeated nation—such definite defeat being necessary for the world's safety—no attention should be paid to her receptive "peace" talk.

Six fine apartment houses on Lenox avenue, New York, have been purchased and "will be devoted to negro tenants." The violent scenes at East St. Louis, Ill., and Chester, Pa., may not be repeated in the metropolis, but long and loud protest at least may be expected.

A bone-dry nation within six years, decrees the Senate—that is, if three-fourths of the State can be induced to consent.

REGULATIONS CALLING MEN TO ARMS ISSUED

Crowder Tells Plan of Moving Men Into Camp—Civilian Control Carried Through Every Stage, Almost to Gates of Camp.

Washington, August 9.—Regulations under which men of the new national army will be called to the colors beginning September 1, were issued tonight by Provost Marshal General Crowder. They map out in detail the whole program to be followed until every soldier of the selective draft army has been accepted by the adjutant general of the training cantonment to which he is assigned.

Two hundred thousand of the first 687,000 men will be called up September 1 and forwarded to their camps before September 5. The whole business of assembling the levies at entraining points, providing them with shelter, food and transportation and giving them actual induction into military life is entrusted to the civilian local boards which selected them for service. Until the men reach the camps they will not be in contact with uniformed officers. The civilian control is carried forward through every stage of the draft to the very gates of the military camps where the making of soldiers will begin, to be complete within sound of the guns in France.

The actual call for men will go in each case from the provost marshal general to the state adjutant general, stating the number of men to be supplied at the specified time by the state. Each local board will be promptly informed of its proportion in the call and the adjutant general will fix the date when men from his state shall entrain for the camps.

Immediately the local board will take out the list of men to fill the military roll of accepted men and it will also fix the place of entrainment at the exact time of departure. Orders to the men will be posted and they will be sent by mail. They will be directed to report to the local board at its headquarters not less than twelve hours or more than twenty-four hours before the time of departure for camp.

"From the time specified for reporting to the local board for military duty," the regulations state, "each man in respect of whom notice to report has been posted or mailed shall be in the military service of the United States."

Prior to the arrival of the men at board headquarters, board members are instructed to make arrangements and sanitary sleeping places at hotels and lodging houses, to arrange for their meals and to provide lodging and meal tickets to be taken in payment and reemmed for cash later by a government disbursing officer. In its discretion, the boards may grant permission for the men to remain at their homes.

Arrived at the board headquarters at the hour fixed for reporting, the men will be drawn up, the roll called and agents of the board will take them personally to their quarters, remaining with them until every arrangement for their comfort has been made. Emphatic instructions are given that the quality of food furnished shall be good and the board is held liable for seeing that meals are adequate.

Retreat roll call at the board headquarters, set for 5:30 p. m. on the day of reporting to the board, will be the first military ceremony the drafted men pass through. The board members are directed to be present in person and to inform the men of their military status, impressing on them the fact that disobedience of orders is the gravest military crime. The light hand baggage, containing toilet articles and a change of underclothes which the men are permitted to take with them to camp, will be inspected by the board and the lists of men sent forward made out and copies of original registration cards prepared.

For each district, five alternates will be summoned to the board headquarters in addition to the men actually selected to fill the board quota. They will be held at the assembling point until train time to fill in vacancies should any man of the levy fail to report.

Except for retreat roll call, the men will be given town liberty until 45 minutes before train time. The board will, during the interval select one man from the levy who it deems best qualified to command and place him in charge of the party for its trip. He will name a second commander to aid him and the other men will be told that orders of these two must be obeyed under pain of military discipline.

The men in charge of the party will call the roll at the board headquarters just before train time. He will then line up the draft and, accompanied by the board members, march them to the station to entrain.

There a final verification of the list will be made and if any man of the selected number is missing, an alternate will be sent forward in his place. The tickets, with meal tickets, all papers relating to the party including the copies of registration cards, will be turned over to the man in command and the party will start for its training camp.

It will be the duty of the commander of each party to watch over his men during the trip, to see that none are left behind at any station, that all are fed regularly and that no liquor is furnished to them en route. When within six hours of camp he will file a telegram to the camp adjutant general notifying him of the time of arrival. Immediately upon the departure of the train, the local board will send a similar message.

Every precaution has been taken to meet any emergency in advance. Should a train be delayed by accident, the commander of each party will have proper telegraph blanks to report the fact to the camp adjutant general and ask instructions.

After the departure of the levy for camp, the local boards will turn to gathering up stragglers. If there is evidence of wilful violation of orders, the offender will be reported to the adjutant general of the army as a deserter and the local police will be asked to arrest him on sight and turn him over to the nearest army post for trial.

Where there was no intention to desert, however, and the missing man reports of his own will, the board will send him on to the camp with an explanation and a recommendation as to his degree of culpability.

Arrived at the camp, the party will undergo final physical examination by army doctors. If any are rejected the local board will be notified and an alternate sent forward for each such case. The net quota of a board will be regarded as filled only when the full number of men called for have been finally accepted.

Provision is made also for a strict accounting as to quotas, between the federal government and the adjutant general in the first instance and between the adjutants and the local boards in the second. Reports to show the standing of such accounts will be filed every ten days until every quota has been filled.

COAL CONFERENCE MAY BE CALLED OFF

Chicago, August 9.—Passage of the food control bill may have some effect on the proposed conference of governors of sixteen coal producing states here set for August 16, it was said today.

So far invitations have been sent only to the councils of defense of these states. Governor Lowden left Springfield for Chicago this morning and is expected to take up the matter of inviting the governors in view of developments at Washington. In many quarters it is thought that the control bill gives sufficient authority to the federal government to restore the equilibrium of coal prices.

BILLION BUSHEL OF WHEAT NEXT YEAR

United States Department of Agriculture and State Officials Set High Mark for Wheat Production—Winter Wheat Acreage to be Increased This Fall.

Washington, D. C., August 10.—The production of over one billion bushels of wheat and over eighty-three million bushels of rye, through the planting of 47,337,000 acres to winter wheat and of 5,131,000 acres to rye this fall, is the immediate war agricultural program for the Nation announced today by David F. Houston, Secretary of Agriculture. This record winter wheat acreage, an increase of 18 per cent over last year, would yield 672,000,000 bushels if the average yield for the past ten years is equaled, or under a repetition of the favorable conditions of 1914 would give 880,000,000 bushels. In either case with a spring wheat crop next year equal to that of 1915, the Nation will have more than one billion bushels of wheat for domestic use and export.

This vastly increased production of wheat, needed in any case, will be absolutely essential to prevent a serious shortage of breadstuffs next summer should the growing corn, now behind the season, be much damaged by early frosts.
The program approved by the Secretary of Agriculture represents the best thought of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and of State agricultural officials and State councils of defense.

The study of this question has involved many factors and the specialists have been aware from the first that the demands for wheat may exceed the supply next year. Effort therefore has been made to recommend in each State about as large an acreage in wheat and rye as can be sown without upsetting proper farm practice which must be maintained in the interest of wheat and rye crops this and succeeding years, as well as in the interest of other necessary spring-planted crops are not discussed in detail at this time as they are not food crops in which a marked shortage exists.

The estimates, the Department states, are made with the knowledge that there is some shortage of the fertilizer supply but with the understanding that there will be no general shortage in the supply of seed or of farm machinery which is necessary in the production of the wheat crop. It is understood also that ample transportation facilities will be provided and a fair price of wheat will be established. These factors have been assumed as fixed and satisfactory. If any one or more fail to be adjusted in good time, no person can tell how serious will be the effect on the total crop.

The planting and cultivation of these increased acreages of fall-sown grains calls for unusual effort on the part of the farmers. Plans to place at the disposal of farmers all assistance possible, are being perfected in the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State colleges of agriculture, and other State and local agencies which cooperate in farming matters. The assistance of successful growers of wheat and rye in a campaign to turn out bumper crops in 1918 is assured.

The State officials will do their utmost to get the acreages expected of their States into the ground. The program as originally worked out by the Federal Department of Agriculture called for somewhat more than 44,000,000 acres to be sown this fall. When this proposal was presented to the officials of the several States a further increase was considered possible and

THAT BACKACHE SPELLS DANGER!

Action Today May Save Mayville People Future Misery.

A bad back isn't a bad thing if it serves as warning of hidden kidney disorders. Kidney trouble that is behind it all may be overlooked or neglected. Put your signs to use. Take them as warnings. Fight off kidney weakness. It takes only a slight kidney disorder to start a case of fatal Bright's disease, from which 100,000 people die in the United States every year. Prompt treatment at first—that's all that's necessary to keep kidney weakness from turning into gravel, dropsy, gout, heart trouble or Bright's. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the oldest, the most widely used, the best-recommended Kidney Pills. Forty thousand Americans recommend them publicly. Here's one Mayville case:

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Mayville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since." (Statement given February 13, 1914.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE
On November 15, 1916, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills to-day, as ever. I have not needed a kidney medicine since I took them." Mrs. Burns is only one of many Mayville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended—the remedy backed by home testimony. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When Your Back Is Lame—Remember the Name."

desirable by them. As a consequence the recommendation for the sowing of 47,337,000 acres is made.

CITY PRODUCES NEEDED PORK

Hull, Mass., August 9.—This town has herded of 325 hogs which are turning the garbage into pork, and providing a cheaper disposal of the waste than was possible under the former garbage reduction methods. Hull's municipal or community pigery has been undertaken in response to appeals for more meat production, and officials of the United States Department of Agriculture and of the Massachusetts Agricultural College report the system as practical.

The town's Committee of Public Safety advanced the money to buy the young pigs, which were taken at cost by citizens. The land for pasturing and housing the hogs was given free, so the only cost was for two large hog houses. One man feeds and manages the entire herd. Each day the uneaten garbage is taken away before any more is fed; all hogs are inoculated against cholera and are kept under sanitary conditions.

When the hogs are ready for market the unit cost of care and feeding will be shared equally by the owners, and this sum plus the original cost of the pig will be the only expense to the owners. The Public Safety Committee is holding a surplus of young sows for breeding, since it plans to continue the system. Citizens of this town extol the advantages of its garbage disposal and recommend it for other places of similar size.
